GREATER FORT LAUDERDALE
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Suzanne Bogdan
Regional Managing Partner,
Fisher Phillips

Suzanne Bogdan is the managing partner in the Fort Lauderdale office. She handles all types of employment-related matters, including claims for age, race, sex, disability, religious, and national origin discrimination arising under the various civil rights laws, as well as claims involving family leave issues, wage hour matters, and breach of contract.

Suzanne's practice includes preventive counseling, training, audits, policy reviews, drafting of contracts, defense of claims in the administrative setting, and litigation in all courts.

Suzanne is also the Chair of the firm's Education Practice Group, actively representing more than 100 private educational institutions in employee, student, and board issues.

Suzanne also works with many of the accrediting agencies and school associations, including the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS) and the Florida Council of Independent Schools.

Suzanne is a frequent presenter to both educational and corporate associations on all aspects of employment law and risk management in the employment context.

She is "AV" Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell. Suzanne was selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2013, 2014, 2016 - 2020 and she was included in the 2012 edition of South Florida's Top Rated Lawyers, presented by Legal Leaders. She was also selected for inclusion in The Legal 500 - Litigation in 2015 and Florida Super Lawyers in 2016.

Suzanne was recognized in the 2014 edition of the South Florida Legal Guide as one of the "Top Lawyers" in South Florida. In 2017 and 2019, she received the Chair's Award at the Greater Fort Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce's Annual Meeting for her outstanding contributions to the Chamber, which included serving as the Chamber's Legal Counsel.

2020 CHAIR
GREATER FORT LAUDERDALE
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Bill Feinberg

President & Co-Owner, Allied Kitchen and Bath

Bill Feinberg is president and co-owner of Allied Kitchen and Bath, a company he established in 1984 with his brother Joe in Fort Lauderdale, FL. The Feinbergs just celebrated the opening of their second showroom, the Allied Design Center in the Downtown Oakland Park Culinary & Arts District. The Allied Design Center features the latest in Contemporary Kitchens and Appliances, along with the popular Outdoor Kitchen trends and products.

Bill Feinberg's motto is "Pay it Forward," and he successfully carries it out in a real and present way among his colleagues and his community through his philanthropic efforts. Allied Kitchen & Bath redefined the non-profit community's regular routine by hosting numerous charity events in both of its showrooms. In recognition of his contributions, Mr. Feinberg won the 2013 Sun Sentinel's Excalibur Award, South Florida's most prestigious honor that recognizes excellence in business and philanthropy.

Bill has been an annual presenter for the Jim Moran Institute for Global Entrepreneurship. Feinberg also serves on the boards of the US Army Advisory Council of Broward County, The Economic Advisory Council of Broward County which works closely with The Federal Reserve Board, and is a past Board President of The South Florida Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, the Oakland Park Wilton Manors Chamber, and Habitat for Humanity Broward, just to name a few. Bill Feinberg is the current chair of The Greater Ft Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce for 2020.

After more than 35 years in Fort Lauderdale, referrals are still Allied's main source of business. Bill's goal is to create lasting relationships with clients making them part of the Allied family. Allied Kitchen and Bath is built on a strong work ethic, where honesty and integrity come first, and every Allied team member is encouraged to live "family first" as that is the foundation on which the company was built.

FEATURED SPEAKER

Erin Kobetz, PhD, MPH

Associate Director, Population
Science And Cancer Disparity,

Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center

Chief, Population Health, University
Of Miami Miller School Of Medicine

Dr. Erin Kobetz is a Tenured Professor in the Departments of Medicine, Public Health Sciences, and Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Miami (UM) Miller School of Medicine. Additionally, she is Associate Director of Population Science and Cancer Disparities at UM's Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center (SCCC), as well as, the Chief of Population Health and Cancer Disparities for UHealth Oncology Service line. Dr. Kobetz also serves as Program Director for the Community Engagement and Multidisciplinary Team Science Components of UM's Clinical Translational Science Institute (CTSA) and is the University's co-Vice Provost for Research (VPR).

She earned a Master's in Public Health from Rollins School of Public Health at Emory University (1999), and joined the University of Miami in September of 2004, after completing her Ph.D. at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Gillings School of Public Health. Soon after, Dr. Kobetz established Patnè en Aksyon (Partners in Action), Sylvester's first ever campus community partnership in Little Haiti, the largest enclave of Haitian settlement, and remains committed to integrating diverse stakeholders into the translational research continuum.

Dr. Kobetz currently works as the Principal Investigator of multiple grants from the National Cancer Institute (NCI) and National Institute of Minority Health and Health Disparity (NIHMD,) to support collaborative science with numerous South Florida communities. Collectively, they have garnered over 25 million dollars in extramural funding and serve as the University's model for stakeholder engagement. Dr. Erin Kobetz has also partnered with South Florida Firefighters - similarly characterized by excess cancer risk - and leads the Firefighter Cancer Initiative (FCI), a University-wide interdisciplinary strategy to address disparity from "bench" to "bedside" to "community." Such efforts have been locally and nationally recognized and serve as an important approach to develop new community-based models for cancer prevention and achieve sustainable health and social change in underserved communities.
